

M.Phil Course - Outcomes

Programme Specific Outcome (PSO)

PSO1

It includes theoretical concepts and literary theories/approaches to research with specification. Different school of literary approaches are taught so that our students can learn about the international phenomenon of criticism.

PSO2

Course 2 is related to literature contemporary medieval periods' literature. The purpose of this specific paper is to enlighten the researchers about our traditional literary heritage.

PSO3

This paper focuses on different form of modern Punjabi literature.

Course Outcomes (CO)

Semester I

Punjabi-01: Research Methodology and Approaches to Poetics

CO1. This paper is divided into two parts. First part deals with oriental Research Methodology and second part focuses on western poetics. In this paper theoretical concepts, technical aspects, different research approaches etc. are the main learning process for students.

Punjabi-02: Medieval Punjabi literature

CO2. Second paper is an optional paper. Following options are available to research scholars:

- Gurmat Kav
- Sufi Kav
- Qissa Kav
- Vir Kav
- Folklore

Punjabi-03: Modern Punjabi literature

CO3. Third paper is an optional paper. Following options of modern Punjabi literature can be opted by the research scholar:

- Poetry
- Fiction
- Drama
- Punjabi Prose, Biography and Criticism

All options available under this course are related to socio-cultural political background of modern Punjabi literature. In this course the theoretical perspective remains static while the practical aspects are dynamic so that students can read new arrivals of writings also and develop their understanding with regards to the upcoming challenges and current issues of global society also.

Course Outcomes (CO)

Semester II

Presentation of two research papers & Dissertation writing

CO1. Semester-II is focused on practical analysis of teaching of the previous semester according to their field of interest. Faculty also guides the students to prepare research papers, seminar papers and develop their research writing skill.

(a) Term paper presentation

(b) Dissertation writing